EL JARDÍN DE LAS HESPÉRIDES

"The Garden of the Hesperides" is that magical place of the goddess Hera, where the most precious goods for humanity are kept. To safeguard her goods, the goddess Hera entrusted Egle, Eritia and Arethusa, the Hesperides and sunset nymphs, with the protection of her valuable objects.

This time, to protect the prevailing normative world, Goddess Hera has ordered the Hesperides to hide objects she considers threatening in order to destabilize and break with the normative world. The only limited world in terms of human diversity that she knows and that the Hesperides try to protect in order not to give way to social inclusion and diversity.

Your mission is to find those objects, the most powerful weapons for inclusion, the objects that are able to make the world more accessible to everyone. But beware! the Hesperides have set hundreds of traps to prevent us from entering their garden, on the other side of the door... so look around you, use your intuition and above all, don't run out of time!

POEM

The trees of this Garden
have fruits, but not like others
they are the most coveted fruits
owned by Hera, the Goddess

Under the custody of the Hesperides
those nymphs of the dawn
you can find the golden apples,
but if you are not clever, maybe you won't!
